

CONTENTS

Diplomatic History Volume 43, Number 4, September 2019

ARTICLES

- Feeding Germany: American Quakers in the Weimar Republic 597
by Guy Aiken
- “More with Less”: Commerce, Technology, and International Health at USAID, 1961–1981 618
by Heidi Morefield
- Geopolitics Turned Inwards: The Princeton Military Studies Group and the National Security Imagination 644
by Dexter Fergie
- The 1977 “Carter Initiative” on Northern Ireland 671
by P. J. McLoughlin and Alison Meagher
- Tyranny, Communism, and U.S. Policy in Equatorial Guinea, 1968–1979 699
by Geoffrey Jensen
- Giving Most and Giving Differently: Humanitarianism as Diplomacy
Following Japan’s 1923 Earthquake 729
by J. Charles Schencking

BOOK REVIEWS

- Building the Empire State 758
by Kristin Hoganson
- Lady Bountiful, Unashamed 763
by David A. Hollinger
- The Right to Sell and Leave 765
by Charles S. Maier
- The Mish Kids are All Right 769
by Emily Conroy-Krutz
- WWHD 772
by Ryan Irwin
- If Radicals Ruled the World 774
by Eliga Gould

(CONTINUED)

Zbigniew Brzezinski: Intellectual Gadfly or Grand Strategist? by Nancy Mitchell	777
CORRIGENDUM	781
LETTERS
Letter from the Editor by Anne L. Foster	782